ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The committee would like to gratefully and sincerely acknowledge the Bend-La Pine Schools Board Members for their vision, understanding, and most importantly, their support during this lengthy process. Their willingness to break from the set standards of educational leadership provided a catalyst for the work of the committee:

Julie Craig, Ron Gallinat, Cheri Helt, Andy High, Nori Juba, Peggy Kinkade, Dr. Stuart Young
Former Board Members: Wells Ashby, Beth Bagley, Kelly Goff, Mike Jensen, Tom Wilson

We would also like to acknowledge the dedication of Career Pathways and Compensation Committee members who worked on designing the framework for the Professional Advancement and Support System:

RATIONALE

Underlying the philosophy of the Bend-La Pine Schools' teacher compensation system is the belief that teachers should be recognized for work that improves the quality of their instructional practice and the learning outcomes of their students. In designing a new advancement and compensation system, district staff and school board members want to emphasize their appreciation and support for the dynamic nature of teaching and learning.

Traditional teaching salary schedules tie advancement to years of experience and completion of college course credits. This system of advancement offers limited recognition and/or encouragement for teachers to participate in more meaningful professional growth opportunities and to truly focus on improved professional practice. It also fails to recognize many of the dynamics of teaching and learning.

The designers of Bend-La Pine Schools' new system recognize that a teaching career is characterized by more than years of experience and credits attained. As teachers grow in their own learning and experience, they need different levels and types of professional learning, support and feedback. They also recognize that teachers can and should be supported to develop and grow at different rates. Compensation and advancement models such as ours help foster productive differentiation.

Finally, it should be noted that although Bend-La Pine Schools embrace the vision of a Master Level teacher in every classroom, the district acknowledges that a teaching force in a rapidly growing school district will always be made up of teachers at different professional levels. It also recognizes that other factors in the life of a teacher may influence the individual's ability to advance at an aggressive pace. While having a Master Level teacher in every classroom may be a vision, it is expected that highly functioning Professional Level teachers will achieve outstanding results with their students. This system is designed to support and acknowledge teachers at all levels, while providing a compensation structure that encourages continued growth.

A collaborative team of teachers, building and district administrators, and school board members joined in the development of this model. All involved believe it offers exciting opportunities for the future of Bend-La Pine educators and their students and will encourage the highest level of instructional practice.

SYSTEM OVERVIEW

The new BLS PASS (Professional Advancement and Support System) is designed to align compensation and career advancement with evidence of instructional proficiency, application of meaningful professional learning and effective use of student achievement data to drive instruction.

The structure of the PASS identifies three major levels of teachers' careers: Early Career Educator, Professional Educator, and Master Educator. Advancement is contingent upon a passing score on your Level Review which is assessed by a trained district team of teachers and administrators.

As the PASS system's capacity continues to develop, the expectation for higher-level roles and responsibilities will be an element of Master Educator level attainment and continuation.

PASS ELIGIBILITY FOR NEW EMPLOYEES – 2015-16

Eligibility Qualifications:

The following rules govern eligibility for the Professional Advancement and Support System:

Year 1 Certified Classroom, ERC/Life Skills Teachers:

1. Teachers who hold a valid teaching or professional license/certificate issued by the Oregon Teacher Standards and Practice Commission (TSPC) and are in their first year of their teaching career will be automatically placed on the PASS (Early Career Educator, Step 1).
2. Teachers must be employed in a position of .5 FTE or greater.
3. The position can be temporary or permanent.

Year 2 Certified Classroom, ERC/Life Skills Teachers

1. Teachers who hold a valid teaching or professional license/certificate issued by the Oregon Teacher Standards and Practice Commission (TSPC) and are in their second year of their teaching career will be given the option of choosing the PASS (Early Career educator, Step 2) or the traditional salary schedule.
2. Teachers must be employed in a position of .5 FTE or greater.
3. The position can be temporary or permanent.

Non-classroom teachers and teachers in their third year or beyond of the teaching profession will not be eligible for the PASS in the 2015-16 school year. Future plans include the development of the placement process for these teachers onto the PASS.

EARLY CAREER EDUCATOR

Rationale

Bend-La Pine Schools is committed to supporting staff in their quest to become better educators. Through a comprehensive and prescribed program, our Early Career Educators will have the opportunity to grow their practice while meeting Oregon's licensure requirements for TSPC. This cost-effective program will provide structured support for teachers new to the profession, allowing them to grow through experience, professional learning, graduate-level classes, and action research. In addition to meeting TSPC requirements, this program is designed to meet Bend-La Pine School's expectations for the Early Career Educator (ECE) Five-Year Advancement Plan, which culminates in promotion to the Professional Educator Tier 1, Step 1.

Teachers who meet level requirements for advancement are identified using the following InTASC assumptions:

1. Learning and teaching are complex.
2. Teaching expertise can be learned, develops over time, and is not linear.
3. Growth can occur through reflection upon experience, feedback, or professional learning experiences.
4. Student development depends on the teacher's understanding of context and knowledge of how to support learning.
5. It is about the teaching practice, not about the teacher.
6. Each task is designed to move a teacher's practice along a continuum from being more directive to more facilitative to more collaborative.

*²In order to submit for Level Review, teachers may not have been on a support strategy or Plan of Assistance during that instructional year. Being placed on a Plan of Assistance at any time during the year prohibits a teacher from moving to the next step the following year.

*³Professional goal setting and review are required annually for all Bend-La Pine teachers.

*⁴Elective(s) are one or two credit courses taken over time with a focus on content and/or pedagogical knowledge. These courses may be taken at any time during the first five years of service.

*⁵SIOP may be taken at any time during a teacher’s first five years.

Successful completion of all courses is required.

Level Review Components

TASK 1 – TEACHING PRACTICE AND LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

- Two – 10-minute videos
 - same class, same unit, two different lessons
- Content area: different from Task 2 for elementary
- Written or videotaped commentary
 - provide context of classroom
 - describe lessons
 - reflect on teaching practices and learning environment
 - analyze your teaching practices and learning environment

TASK 2 – ON-DEMAND ASSESSMENT

- Controlled testing environment
- Teacher brings three samples of student work (choice of: audio, visual, written)
 - Samples should represent a high, medium and low level of performance related to the assigned task
- Written response to prompts
- Student samples used as context for analysis and reflection
- Focus on teacher's content knowledge
- Content area: different from Task 1 for elementary

TASK 3 – ACTION RESEARCH PROJECT

- Content area: teacher's choice
- Based on work completed in Action Research class

All submissions will be presented to the Level Review Panel. There will be no interview or presentation component.

Rubrics will be used to score each task.

EARLY CAREER EDUCATOR TASK 1

Overview

Task 1 summarizes details from your instructional planning and evidence of your teaching based on two videos. Evaluation is based on evidence of practice, analysis of instruction, student engagement, and the learning environment.

What Do I Need to Do?

Your two videos should show evidence of your teaching practice, the learning environment, and student engagement. Together the two lessons should demonstrate your knowledge of the content area, different instructional formats, and a repertoire of strategies.

Describe, analyze and reflect on your learning environment and teaching practice. Show the assessors clear and concise evidence of your effective teaching.

EARLY CAREER EDUCATOR TASK 1

Understanding the Task Requirements

The requirements for this task are as follows:

- choose one class or subject period to best demonstrate the broadest possible range of your teaching practice.
- choose two different lessons with unique lesson goals and objectives from one unit of instruction.
- submit two 10 minute videos of your teaching practices.
- submit a cover sheet for Level Review submission.
- describe your instructional planning for each lesson featured in video and submit appropriate supporting materials.

Submit a written or video commentary for each video where you:

- review your teaching practice from the lessons.
- analyze if you met the goals of your lessons.
- reflect on what your next steps are in relation to the lessons.

EARLY CAREER EDUCATOR TASK 1

Recording Videos

Video Requirements

- Two 10 minute videos
- Same class, same unit

Why Your Video Is Important

The purpose of the videos is to provide an authentic and complete view of your teaching. The Level Review Panel is not able to visit your class; therefore, a video recording is the only illustration of

- how you interact with students and how they interact with you and with each other.
 - the climate you create in the classroom.
 - the ways in which you engage students in learning.
1. Decide on the sessions to record. This process will be most beneficial if you record multiple sessions with a variety of lessons and/or students within your teaching assignment. The lessons you record should be important for students' learning.
 2. Immediate reflection after teaching can help when later working on the analysis of a recording. At a minimum, note the following:
 - any particular instructional challenges offered by the students
 - the learning goals (lesson objectives) for the lesson
 - your opinion about the overall success of the lesson (i.e., were the learning goals met?)
 - a description of any instructional materials used in the lesson

Recording Your Videos

Use a Swivl or reliable video camera to videotape lessons. Each school, as well as the Mentor Program, has Swivls available for loan.

EARLY CAREER EDUCATOR TASK 1

Video Analysis Questions

Video-recorded teaching sessions offer particularly strong evidence of a teacher's knowledge and ability. Ask yourself these questions:

- How did your instructional decisions during the lesson align with your planning?
- What specific approaches, strategies, techniques and/or activities did you use to promote active student engagement in the lesson? (Cite examples from video recording.)
- How did you establish a safe, fair, equitable and challenging environment for all students?
- How did you monitor and assess students' progress during the lesson?
- Did you achieve the lesson's goals? How do you know? (Cite evidence)
- What would you do differently, if anything, if you were to teach this again? Why?

Video Evidence in a Language other than English

Student work samples and video evidence may include expressions or phrases in a language other than English. If key information would benefit the Level Review Panel, please submit it. A translator will be available for the Level Review Panel, if necessary.

EARLY CAREER EDUCATOR TASK 1

Submission

Before You Submit

As you work on completing your task, you should reflect on ways to improve your responses by asking yourself these questions:

- Does the task, taken as a whole, accurately represent my teaching?
- Are there important aspects of my teaching that the task does not capture?
- Do I address each of the questions listed in the written commentary instructions?
- In what ways could I improve my responses to the questions in the task?
- In what ways might my responses be incomplete or unclear to someone who is not familiar with my content or classroom?

What Do I Need to Submit?

For this entry you must submit the evidence described in this section.

- Cover sheet for Level Review submission (one for each video)
- Written or videotaped reflection commentary
- Two videos
 - Two video recordings (10 minutes each) from two different lessons (same class, same unit)

Format

- 12 pt. Arial font
- 2-page limit
- 1 inch margin

Ethics and Collaboration

You may collaborate with colleagues and have discussions about your work; and have them help you record, watch, and analyze the recordings. The written or videotaped commentary you submit must feature teaching that you did and work that you oversaw. If you work as a member of a team of teachers, you have an opportunity to collaborate with other members of the team who are going through the assessment. However, all of the work you submit as part of your response to this entry must be yours and yours alone.

EARLY CAREER EDUCATOR TASK 1

Writing About Teaching

Task 1 requires description, analysis, and reflection of your teaching practice. This process involves

- describing what happened in a classroom situation
- analyzing the “how,” “why,” or “in what way” a particular lesson was or was not successful in teaching students
- reflecting on how you would handle this same situation in the future

This brief guide to writing about teaching is really a guide to the summary activity that brings together all the hard work—the thinking, talking, discussing, prewriting, and rethinking—that you are doing during this process and that development of the tasks is designed to elicit.

Why Written Commentary Is Important

Remember that the only information available to the Level Review Panel is what is provided in these tasks—video recordings, instructional materials, and written commentary. Regardless of the strength of the evidence presented in the videos, the commentary is crucial in demonstrating reflective and effective teaching practices.

Keep the essential differences among descriptive, analytical, and reflective writing in mind as you prepare your written commentary. The scoring rubric for each task calls for each of these kinds of writing; providing an appropriate response is essential to a complete presentation of your work.

Descriptive Writing

In this context, a description involves the most important facts of what happened in a classroom situation. It is meant to “set the scene” for the Level Review Panel. Your description should be logically ordered and detailed enough to give assessors a basic sense of your classroom situation so that they can understand the context for your later analysis and reflection.

When you are asked to describe, be certain that your response meets these criteria:

- contains accurate and precise enumeration and/or explanation of critical features;
- provides clear and logical ordering of the elements or features of the event person, concept or strategy;

- includes all features or elements that an outsider would need to be able to see;
- specifies the meaning of any abbreviation or acronym the first time it is used.

Analytical and Reflective Writing

Analysis is grounded in concrete evidence provided in the materials submitted. Analytical writing shows assessors the thought processes that you used to arrive at your conclusions about a given teaching situation. It also demonstrates the significance of the evidence you submit.

Reflective thought may occur at any time throughout the teaching practice. The reflection component of the commentary is where assessors see learning from teaching experiences, informing and improving practice in the future.

For the purposes of this written commentary, analysis involves interpretation and examination of why elements or events described are the way they are, while reflection always suggests self-analysis, or retrospective consideration, of your practice.

Analyzing requires showing the success of a particular lesson or some specific teaching. Do not simply explain what happened, which would be a description. Further, do not state a conclusion (“The lesson was a success”) or simply note the fulfillment of your learning goals (“Students gained a better understanding of multiculturalism in our society”) without also giving evidence or examples to support the statement.

Ask yourself these questions:

- What did my students know before this teaching experience?
- What did my students learn because of this teaching experience?
- What did I know about my students and their knowledge before this teaching (which is both analytical and reflective)?
- What did I learn about my students and my practice because of this teaching experience (which is both analytical and reflective)?

Use the “Collecting Evidence of Accomplished Teaching Steps” to help guide writing and show evidence of your knowledge of students, your purposeful instruction and reflective teaching practice. Steps 1, 2, and 3 refer to planning and steps 4, 5, and 6 refer to reflection.

COLLECTING EVIDENCE OF ACCOMPLISHED TEACHING STEPS

	Description	Core Proposition Demonstrated	Collecting Evidence of Accomplished Teaching
Step 1	Know students and subject area	Teachers are committed to students and their learning.	Who are my students? Where are they now? What do they need? In what order do they need it? Where should I begin?
Step 2	Set Learning Goals	Teachers are committed to students and their learning.	What high and worthwhile goals can be provided, at this time, in this setting, that are appropriate for these students.
Step 3	Implement Instruction to Achieve Goals	Teachers know the subjects they teach and how to teach those subjects to students.	What instructional strategies would be most effective for meeting goals? What materials, people or places can I use to enhance student learning?
Step 4	Evaluate Student Learning	Teachers are responsible for managing and monitoring student learning.	Determine by evaluating student learning in relation to instruction – have goals been met?
Step 5	Reflect on Teaching Practices	Teachers think systematically about their practice and learn from experience.	What would I do differently? What are my next steps?
Step 6	Set New Learning Goals	Teachers are responsible for managing and monitoring student learning.	Based on evaluations of student learning of these students at this time, what goals would now be appropriate to set for students?

EARLY CAREER EDUCATOR TASK 2

Overview

Task 2 requires you to use student work to analyze and reflect on your own teaching practice (focusing heavily on Steps 4, 5, and 6 of the Accomplished Teaching Steps). You will use three student work samples to respond to the given prompt.

Understanding the Task Requirements

The requirements for this task are the following:

- Select three student work samples that best exemplify the wide range of students in your classroom. You will select a high, medium and low level of performance as assessed by the task;
- All student work samples must be from the same unit of study;
- You will receive a prompt directing you to analyze student data and write a reflection upon teaching and learning;
- This task will not be scored based on student achievement but on the reflection and refinement of teaching practices as a result of student work analysis.

What Do I Need to Do?

Identify the unit of study and activity from which you will select student work samples. Depending on your area of instruction, samples may be audio, visual, or written. Select three student work samples to analyze and reflect upon that best show the range of your students' skills and understanding in relation to the activity.

Carefully read the prompt given to you at the time of task completion. Make sure your analytical and reflective response addresses all aspects of the prompt.

EARLY CAREER EDUCATOR TASK 2

Analysis Questions

Prior to the completion of the task, use these questions to practice analyzing student work samples.

- What strengths are shown in each student sample?
- What needs for improvement are shown in each student sample?
- What are the major similarities and differences among work samples of varying levels?
- How did your plan of instruction change throughout the unit to best support student growth?
- What did you observe through student work samples that caused you to refine/change your lessons?
- What are your next steps to help ensure each student's growth in skills and understanding?
- How would you change your unit of instruction for the future? Why?

EARLY CAREER EDUCATOR TASK 2

Student Work Samples

Submission of Work Samples

Student work samples must be submitted at the time of task completion. Photocopies may be submitted of written work.

Evidence in a Language Other than English

Student work samples and video evidence may include expressions or phrases in a language other than English.

For each student sample in response to the task, teacher's rationale for identified goal and selection of supporting strategies, materials, and/or resources
Rationale clearly focuses on connections among student's strengths and needs, strategies and materials. Rationale reflects deep knowledge of content and pedagogy.	Rationale includes connection among student's strengths and needs, strategies and materials. Rationale reflects knowledge of content and pedagogy.	Rationale does not show a clear link among students' strengths and needs, strategies and materials. Rationale reflects limited knowledge of content and pedagogy.	Rationale does not include any linkage among students' strengths and needs, strategies and materials. Rationale reflects little or no knowledge of content and pedagogy.

Writing About Teaching

Task 2 requires on-demand description, analysis, and reflection of student work as it informs your instruction. This process involves the following:

- describing the unit of instruction from which these work samples were taken;
- analyzing the work samples of students, including background on where students began, where they are at the point when samples were selected, strengths, struggles, and next steps;
- reflecting on how you would refine this unit of study in the future.

This brief guide to writing about teaching is really a guide to the summary activity that brings together all the hard work—the thinking, talking, discussing, prewriting, and rethinking—that you are doing during this process and that development of the tasks is designed to elicit.

Why Written Commentary Is Important

Remember that the only information available to the Level Review Panel is what is provided in these tasks—student work samples and your reflection and response to the prompt. Your response is crucial in demonstrating reflective teaching practice.

Keep the essential differences among descriptive, analytical, and reflective writing in mind as you prepare your written commentary. The Scoring Rubric for each task calls for each of these kinds of writing; providing an appropriate response is essential to a complete presentation of your work.

Descriptive Writing

In this context, a description is a retelling of the facts of what happened in a classroom situation. It is meant to “set the scene” for the Level Review Panel. Your description should be logically ordered and detailed enough to give assessors a basic sense of your classroom situation so that they can understand the context for your later analysis and reflection.

When you are asked to describe, be certain that your response meets these criteria:

- contains accurate and precise enumeration and/or explanation of critical features;
- provides clear and logical ordering of the elements or features of the event person, concept or strategy;

- includes all features or elements that an outsider would need to be able to see;
- specifies the meaning of any abbreviation or acronym the first time it is used.

Analytical and Reflective Writing

Analysis is grounded in concrete evidence provided in the materials submitted. Analytical writing shows assessors the thought processes you used to arrive at your conclusions about a given teaching situation. It also demonstrates the significance of the evidence you submit.

Reflective thought may occur at any time throughout the teaching practice. The reflection component of the commentary is where assessors see learning from teaching experiences, informing and improving practice in the future.

For the purposes of this written commentary, analysis involves interpretation and examination of why elements or events described are the way they are, while reflection always suggests self-analysis, or retrospective consideration, of your practice.

Analyzing requires showing the success of a particular lesson or some specific teaching. Do not simply explain what happened, which would be a description. Further, do not state a conclusion (“The lesson was a success”) or simply note the fulfillment of your learning goals (“Students gained a better understanding of multiculturalism in our society”), without also giving evidence or examples to support the statement.

Ask yourself these questions:

- What did my students know before this teaching experience?
- What did my students learn because of this teaching experience?
- What did I know about my students and their knowledge before this teaching (which is both analytical and reflective)?
- What did I learn about my students and my practice because of this teaching experience (which is both analytical and reflective)?

Use the “Collecting Evidence of Accomplished Teaching Steps” to help guide writing and show evidence of your knowledge of students, your purposeful instruction and reflective teaching practice. Steps 1, 2, and 3 refer to planning and steps 4, 5, and 6 refer to reflection.

COLLECTING EVIDENCE OF ACCOMPLISHED TEACHING STEPS

	Description	Core Proposition Demonstrated	Collecting Evidence of Accomplished Teaching
Step 1	Know students and subject area	Teachers are committed to students and their learning.	Who are my students? Where are they now? What do they need? In what order do they need it? Where should I begin?
Step 2	Set Learning Goals	Teachers are committed to students and their learning.	What high and worthwhile goals can be provided, at this time, in this setting, that are appropriate for these students.
Step 3	Implement Instruction to Achieve Goals	Teachers know the subjects they teach and how to teach those subjects to students.	What instructional strategies would be most effective for meeting goals? What materials, people or places can I use to enhance student learning?
Step 4	Evaluate Student Learning	Teachers are responsible for managing and monitoring student learning.	Determine by evaluating student learning in relation to instruction – have goals been met?
Step 5	Reflect on Teaching Practices	Teachers think systematically about their practice and learn from experience.	What would I do differently? What are my next steps?
Step 6	Set New Learning Goals	Teachers are responsible for managing and monitoring student learning.	Based on evaluations of student learning of these students at this time, what goals would now be appropriate to set for students?

Overview

Task 3 is the action-research paper, in which you will describe in detail all the stages of your classroom- or school-embedded action-research project. All task requirements will be discussed in depth during the action-research class required of all fourth-year teachers.

EARLY CAREER EDUCATOR TASK 3

Action Research Project Level Review Scoring Rubric

Level 4 Strong	Level 3 Proficient	Level 2 Developing	Level 1 Basic
Explanation of Context, Problems, Issue
Makes strong case for the need and desirability for improvement.	Adequately explains the benefits for the researcher's teaching or the student's learning.	Demonstrates awareness of possible benefits for teaching and learning.	Declare the hope for change and improvement.
Perceives and explores a broad range of implications beyond the case at hand.	Recognizes and explains the applicability of this inquiry to other educators.	Seems unsure or unclear about relevance beyond the case at hand.	Doesn't address applicability beyond the case at hand.
Provides readers with enough contextual data to take into account the uniqueness of the context.	Recognizes and addresses the relevant and unique characteristics of the researcher's context.	Provides accurate but incomplete report on research context.	Reports on context but leaves out several critical details.
Theoretical Perspective
Provides a thorough literature review presented in a logical, clear and concise manner.	Demonstrates an understanding of key research findings or commentaries on the issue or problem.	Shows a basic understanding of major premises behind intervention.	Demonstrates awareness of the procedures recommended by developers of an intervention.
Detailed, logical and clear explanation for the theory informing the proposed intervention.	Provides a logical and clear explanation of the researcher's theory.	Explains the rationale behind proposed intervention	Explains how the researcher intends to implement the intervention.
The proposed intervention logically follows from the findings of others and the researcher's own theory.	The proposed intervention is justified based on the researcher's theoretical stance.

Level 4 Strong	Level 3 Proficient	Level 2 Developing	Level 1 Basic
Research Design
The research design takes into account and adequately controls for most apparent and possible extraneous or intervening variables.	The research design makes appropriate use of triangulation to corroborate and support findings.	The research design uses authentic or recognized techniques to determine impact.	A technique or techniques are proposed to demonstrate impact.
The research design uses sampling techniques that make accurate findings highly likely.	The research design makes use of multiple data points to increase accuracy.	The research design reflects an awareness of the risk of inaccuracy.	The techniques have the potential for accurately reflecting performance.
Analysis of Data
All reported findings and conclusions are supported by multiple and credible pieces of data.	All findings are supported by credible pieces of data.	The conclusions are logical and generally supported by the available data.	Conclusions are not contradicted by the available data.
Reasonable alternative interpretations of the data are recognized and discussed.	Reasonable alternative interpretations of data are reported.	The potential for alternative interpretation is recognized.
Reasonable limitations are recognized and addressed along with suggestions for overcoming them.	Reasonable limitations are addressed.	The researcher shows an awareness that possible limitations exist.
Action Planning
The plan is a direct and logical extension of the findings and conclusions.	The plan is consistent with the data and conclusion.	The plan has reasonable face validity.	The plan is consistent with a theory.
Based on the available data, it appears likely that student performance will improve if and when the plan is followed.	The findings suggest the plan will make a difference in student performance.	The available data appears supportive of the plan.	The plan is not contradicted by available data.
The theory behind the plan is clearly outlined and addressed.	The theory behind the plan is addressed.	The plan seems logical.

Action Planning (continued)
The assessment plan should provide valuable evidence of the effectiveness of the plan.	The action plan contains a viable assessment strategy.
The researcher and other educators are likely to benefit from data on the eventual implementation of the plan.	The researcher should benefit from data on the implementation of the action plan.
Editing
Writer makes few or no errors in usage, spelling or punctuation.	While writer makes a few errors in usage, spelling or punctuation, these do not impede readability.		Editing errors impede readability.
Presentation
	Writer generally uses APA formatting correctly for cover page, in-text citations, incorporation of text, headings and references.		Writer makes multiple errors in APA formatting.

PROFESSIONAL EDUCATOR

PROFESSIONAL EDUCATOR RATIONALE

The structure of the Professional Educator level consists of three tiers of advancement. Within each stage, there are opportunities for advancement based on advanced work and proficiency. Each tier will have a focus that refines and advances professional practice: equity, curriculum and instruction, or leadership. While educators may choose the order of their focus areas, they will be expected to complete all three by the end of Tier 3.

Advancement at each tier is contingent upon the successful completion of a literature review, action research aligned to the literature review, and reflection on the research—all connected to the educator's choice of focus. Educators will also demonstrate proficient practice, complete professional learning requirements, assume professional roles and/or facilitate site-based projects, and receive positive evaluations.

In order to advance from tier to tier, the educator will need to successfully complete Tier 1 and Tier 2 Reviews. Advancing to the Master Educator level requires the educator to complete a Professional Level Review.

Educators will have the opportunity to accelerate (skip one step) within each tier by completing additional relevant endorsements, receiving an Initial Administrative License (IAL), or receiving a D.Ed or Ph.D. in education.

MASTER EDUCATOR RATIONALE

Educators who successfully complete their final Professional Level Review advance to the Master Educator level. While there is not yet a profile available for Master Educators, the following descriptors will help differentiate Professional Educators from Master Educators:

- The Master Educator level is distinguished from the Profession Educator level by expectations for educational leadership. Master Educators possess exemplary knowledge and skills and effectively lead professional learning efforts.
- Master Educators seek out or create roles and responsibilities at the building, district, regional, and/or state level that contribute to system analysis and improvement.
- The leadership of a Master Educator will be reflected in his/her classroom, student results, professional practice, and in the professional practice of others in the educational community.

Because our district/schools have significant expectations of leadership for Master Educators, not every educator will achieve Master Educator status or choose to remain at the Master Educator level.

ACCELERATION REQUIREMENTS

Early Career Educator

In order to accelerate you must do the following:

- satisfactory completion of all components in Step 1, 2, 3 including electives
- in Step 4 completion of the action research class and the action research project
- successful completion and a passing score on all tasks (Task 1, 2, and 3) for the Level Review

If the above requirements are met, then the educator may accelerate and skip Early Career Educator, Step 5. This will place the educator on Professional Educator, Tier 1, Step 1 for the following school year.

Professional Educator

Educators may accelerate and skip any Step at the Professional Educator level. In order to accelerate, educators must do ONE of the following:

- receive an endorsement (as recognized by TSPC)
- complete Initial Administrators License (IAL)
- other criteria to be determined

Educators may skip only one Step for each of the criteria listed above.

Educators must complete all Tier Level Reviews.

LEVEL REVIEW RESUBMISSIONS

If educators do not pass all required tasks of the Level Review, they may resubmit any task that did not meet the performance standards.

Educators will remain on the same Step and Tier the school year following an unsuccessful Level Review and may resubmit during that year.

For example, if an educator attempted the Level Review during the 2015-16 school year and did not pass, he/she will remain on the same Step for 2016-17. During the 2016-17 school year, he/she may resubmit the tasks that did not originally meet the performance standards.

If educators disagree with the scores received on the tasks, the educator may appeal. Please see “Appeals Process.”

PASS APPEALS PROCESS

Level Review appeals will be considered only with a complete petition submitted within the first 10 working days of receiving score sheet. Completed petitions include all supporting documents. Incomplete initial submission for Level Review Panel will be denied and will not be eligible for appeal. The appeals panel will consist of the individuals with similar roles as the Level Review Panel.

Teachers are able to appeal the decision of the Level Review Panel for one of the following reasons:

1. Errors in process or procedures beyond the control of the teacher;
2. Disagreement with decision.

Appeal of Level Review:

Process

- Includes rescoring of submitted task by a different Level Review Panel;
- Does not provide feedback;
- An appeal is allowed once per level per year.

Procedure

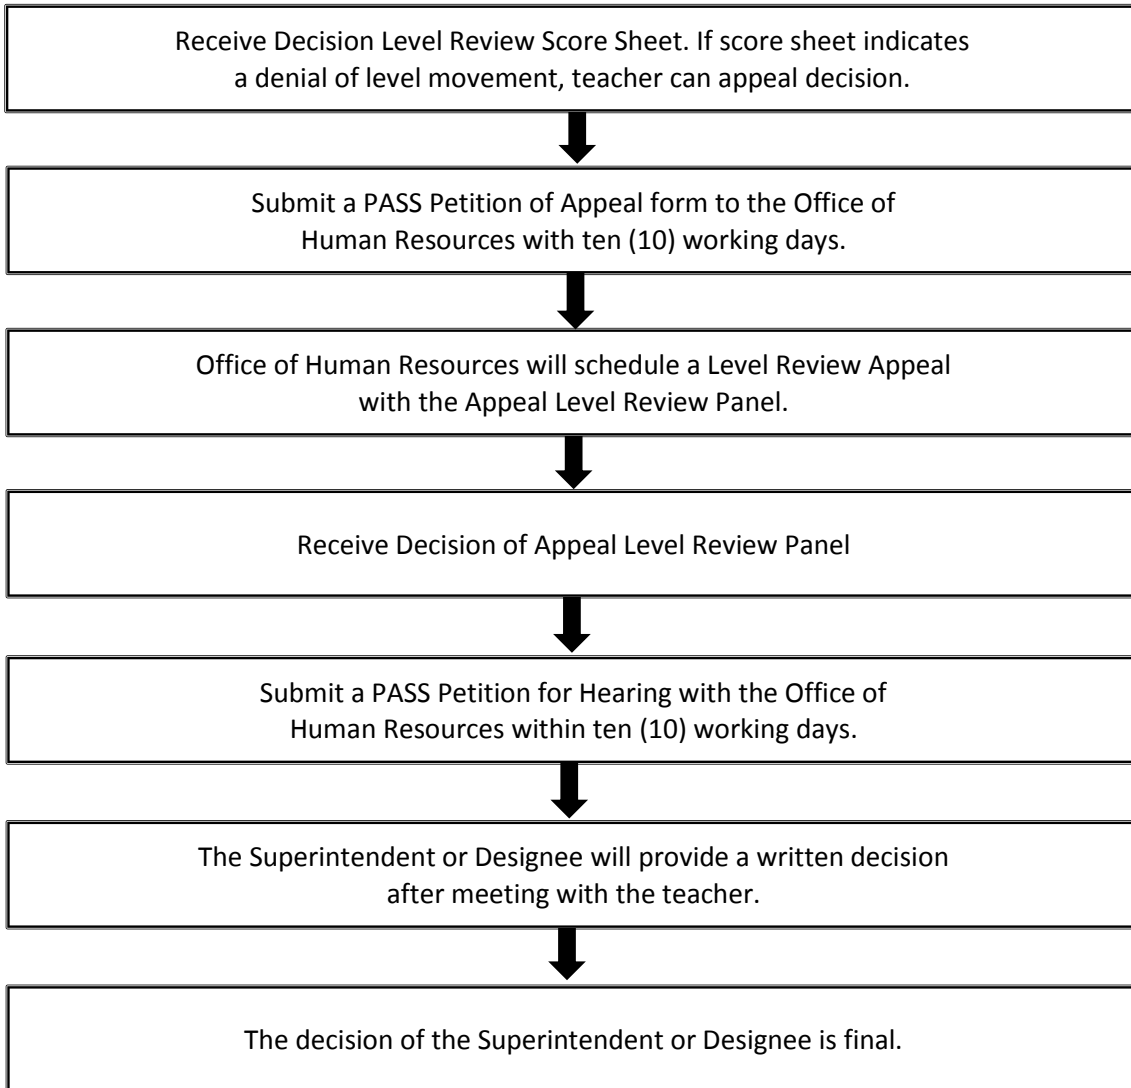

- Applicant must submit completed Petition for Appeal (See Forms: Petition for Appeal) to Human Resources
 - Write an explanation detailing the reason(s) for the appeal
 - The Appeals Panel will use only the appeal request and the original Level Review submission.
- Petition for Appeal form must be submitted within 10 days of receiving score sheet.

Hearing:

- Teacher may request a hearing of the appeal decision (see forms: Petition for Hearing).
- Teacher must submit completed Petition for Hearing form to Human Resources within 10 days.
- The superintendent or designee will conduct the hearing and make a decision.
- Decisions are final.
- After a hearing determination, all further appeals must be done through the Collective Bargaining Agreement grievance process.

APPEALS PROCESS FLOW CHART

In the event a teacher receives notice from the Level Review Panel that they are not meeting the standards based on the Level Review Scoring Rubric, the following appeals process may be followed:

No change in level shall occur until the Appeals Process has been completed or the deadline for the appeal has passed.
